1805 FASHIONS.

The "Opening" at the Palais Royal is attracting the attention of statesmen, politicians and newspaper editors as well as their wives and daughters. The men are interested in the Palais Royal importations because the goods were purchased under the revised tariff and a practical lesson in the working of the new law is had. The women, of course, attend the "Opening" partly to learn of the 1895 fashions and partly to take advantage of the souvenir prices.

The 1895 Dress Goods.

"You have only to visit this second floor of the Palais Royal to learn more of the new dress goods in ten minutes than in ten hours' study of fashion journals." Such was the remark of a well-known dressmaker yes-

The Fashionable World Was Gathered at Corcoran House

afternoon from 5 until 6 to receive the members of the diplomatic corps, who were paying their dinner calls. Senator and Mrs. Brice gave an evening of music to their friends last night, the like of which is by no means an everyday affair. The company assembled in the ball room of Corcoran House and listened to the new violinist Ysaye, who came on from New York especially for the occasion. It is needless to say that the kid-gloved applause was worthy the artist and his listeners. Mr. McKenzie Gordon, who has sung in Mrs. Brice's house before, was heard with renewed pleasure. Mrs. Pemberton Hincks also sang, and her selections were creole songs. The music commenced shortly after 10 o'clock and the snow storm had little effect in lessening the size of the company, which included many of the cabinet, the diplomatic corps, the Senate and resident circles. The Secretary of War and Mrs. Lamont have invitations out for Friday evening, February 1 and 15, at 9 o'clock.

Mrs. William Schofield-Hoge and Miss Hoge entertained yesterday afternoon at a tea, and their home on 15th street was prettily decked with pink carnations and palms. Mrs. Hoge received in black bro-caded satin and chiffon and Miss Hoge wore pink flowered satin and velvet. Assisting in the hospitalities were Miss Brewer, Miss Mannix, Miss Reisinger, Miss Nesbit, and other young ladies. Mr. and Mrs. Hoge welcomed hundreds of their friends -----and the event was a very pleasant one.

Mrs. Westinghouse held her second reception yesterday from 5 until 6 o'clock. ception yesterday from 5 until 6 o'clock. The rocms were decked with American beauty roses and in the dining room the table was elaborately adorned with mignonette and white orchids. Mr. Westinghouse assisted his wife, who had also with her Mrs. Charles Gibson, Mrs. Charles Tracey of New York, Mrs. Dalzell of Pennsylvania, Mrs. Henry Hopkins, Mrs. Swanson and the Misses Mullan.

A surprise masquerade party was tendered Mrs. Warfield last evening at her residence, 761 6th street southeast, by the popular Blue Bell Social Club, of which she popular Bue Ben Social Cito, of which she is a prominent member, to celebrate her forty-third birthday. Mr. T. Fred Jones, in behalf of Mr. Warfield, presented Mrs. Warfield with a pair of gold eyeglasses and a gold watch set with diamonds. A bountiful supper was served, after which dancing and singing were indulged in until after midnight. Those present were Miss Mazie Anderson, Miss Hettie Cox, Miss May Collingsworth, Miss Langley, Miss Sullivan, Miss Annie Bowlding, Miss Addie England, Miss Blanche Kraft, Miss Hattle Bowlding, Mr. and Mrs. S. Mrs. Blanchard, wife of Senator Blanchard, and Mrs. Chas. H. Gibsenator Bianchard, and Mrs. Class. H. Gib-son, with a number of other well known ladies, are the chaperons, and the german will be led by Mr. Martin. Mr. Jas. Cresap Sprigg is the secretary of the club and Messrs Knott and Browne are on the committee of arrangements. The invitations include many of the season's debutantes, who will doubtless enjoy one of the pret-tiest events of the season.

Mrs. Blaine's Augusta home is likely to become a memorial building. A resolution was introduced yesterday in the state senate to inquire into the expediency of pur-chasing the homestead of James G. Blaine by the state to be preserved as a memorial building and as an executive mansion. This historic house is a modest two-story struc-ture, and was occupied by Mrs. Blaine and her family during the summer and fall, and is closed now. The lot is a commodious one, ornamented with trees and shrubbery. Mrs. G. H. La Fetra gave a reception last evening to a large circle of friends.

A number of little girls gathered at the home of Miss Ruth M. Stauffer, 3238 N street northwest, last evening to help her celebrate her birthday. Those present were the Misses May Stauffer, Bertha Griffiths, Inez Walden, Jennie, Fannie and Helen Waters, Myrtle Cameron, Anna Miller and

ST. ANDREW'S BROTHERHOOD. Mass Meeting at St. Mark's Parish Hal: -A Large Attendence

Last evening the men of the Brotherhoo of St. Andrew were out in force and fille St. Mark's Parish Hall when President P B. Pierce ascended the platform at 7:30 The occasion was the first of a series of meetings which have been announced to take place every other month throughou the year in the different parish houses. Prayer and praise, as usual, opened th evening, and then came the business meet ing, which occupied more than half the Mrs. Cleveland was at home yesterday time and was of much importance. Th roll call showed members present from seventeen chapters, including St. Paul'. Church, Alexandria. In the report of Sec retary Henry C. Parkman, a laxity in the promptness and activity of chapter secre taries was shown to be widespread, an was the subject of much unfavorable com ment. An interesting question, lively discussed, was the distribution of convention

Nearly a hundred copies of the Octobenumber of St. Andrew's Cross have beesent by the Epiphany Mission to local labo organizations. The replies from the recipients have been very interesting, and in dicate that the laboring man is well awars of the interest taken by both clergy an laymen in the amelioration of his condition.

Mr. Webster of St. Thomas, Church present and the state of Mr. Webster of St. Thomas' Church pre sented the credentials of the brotherhoo chapter recently organized in that parish. A question to the chapter directors presented the fact that the men of St. Paul'. have organized a friendly league for boy: and are actively engaged in clothing an feeding homeless boys. St. Mark's has go out a parish paper, and, under the direc-tion of their new rector, Rev. Dr. Andrew J. Graham, are rapidly recruiting their de-pleted ranks. St. Mary's chapter has or-ganized a reading room, and St. John's. Washington, is looking for a suitable loca-tion to establish a mission. A house has tion to establish a mission. A house has been rented and fitted up, and the mem bers of St. John's chapter, West Washing ton, gather there every evening and enjourning music, readings, etc. Dr. McKim has succeeded in infusing a spirit of enthusiasm in a rector's Bible class at Epiphany Alexandrians are agitating the subject of establishing a council in their city are
